

1. Le Coq 1918 by Pablo Picasso

One of my best friends lives in a beautiful farmhouse with a huge garden and a dozen or so chickens happily roaming. They are the most loved, best fed chickens that I ever did see and they lay the most delicious eggs with the yellowest of yolks! Her house is very contemporary inside so this print would be perfect for her. Priced at £90 I think this is a great price for a Picasso piece. I often see traditional paintings and prints of chickens but it's not often you see something as modern as this, so it will fit perfectly in her home.
